

Interested applicant,

Let me begin by saying 'Thank you' for taking a moment to learn more about our school and the way that you might be able to join our team. Our school is often known as the hidden gem on the Westbank and that is because of the school staff. As you begin to read the job description and requirements for our staff, I want to share with you some important characteristics we provide for our students, their families, and for those who work on staff at CBS.

Our Core Values at CBS are the following: Give it Your Best; The Bible is our Foundation; Every Student and Staff Member Matters; Creativity Inspires Growth; Everyone Plays their Part. These values are important for you to know because, like I said, they apply to you when you work at CBS. Being on our team as a staff member means you are valued and our leadership will strive to give you the best work environment as you give your best to our students and families.

If you have any questions about the position, qualifications, or any other details, let our principal know as we want to make sure our school is the right fit for you. I ask that you commit to fully getting to know us and letting the Lord speak to you on how you can be a part of our team!

Grateful for your consideration,

Dr. T. Michael Carney HeadMaster

ve Deliberator Christian.
